Wrocław Aikido Summer School rules and regulations

For the duration of Aikido Summer School in Wrocław, taking place from 14 to 21 August 2010:

We ask you to come to the classes on time, at least 15 minutes before the due time.

We ask you to change clothes in the changing room, not in the gym.

In case of being late or the necessity of leaving the gym earlier, we ask you to contact the organizer beforehand.

There is an absolute ban on using mobile phones in the gym. We ask you to turn off mobile phones before entering the gym.

During the ceremony of beginning and ending the classes, persons practicing, as well as staying in the gym, are to remain silent. During the ceremony, persons watching the classes are obliged to stand up.

During the classes, silence is obligatory.

Taking pictures and filming the classes without permission is prohibited.

During the presentation of techniques by the teachers, all persons practicing on a mat are obliged to take a seiza pose (a sitting pose).

The organizer does not cover costs of voluntary insurance in the event of damage to health as well as costs of treatment.

The organizer does not take any responsibility for objects left in the changing room.

It is prohibited to consume alcoholic drinks in the gym.

Persons staying in the gym showing any signs of having consumed alcoholic drinks will be removed from the list of participants of Aikido Summer School.

In case of breaking any of the above rules and regulations, the organizer has legal right to remove any person from the list of participants without money refund.

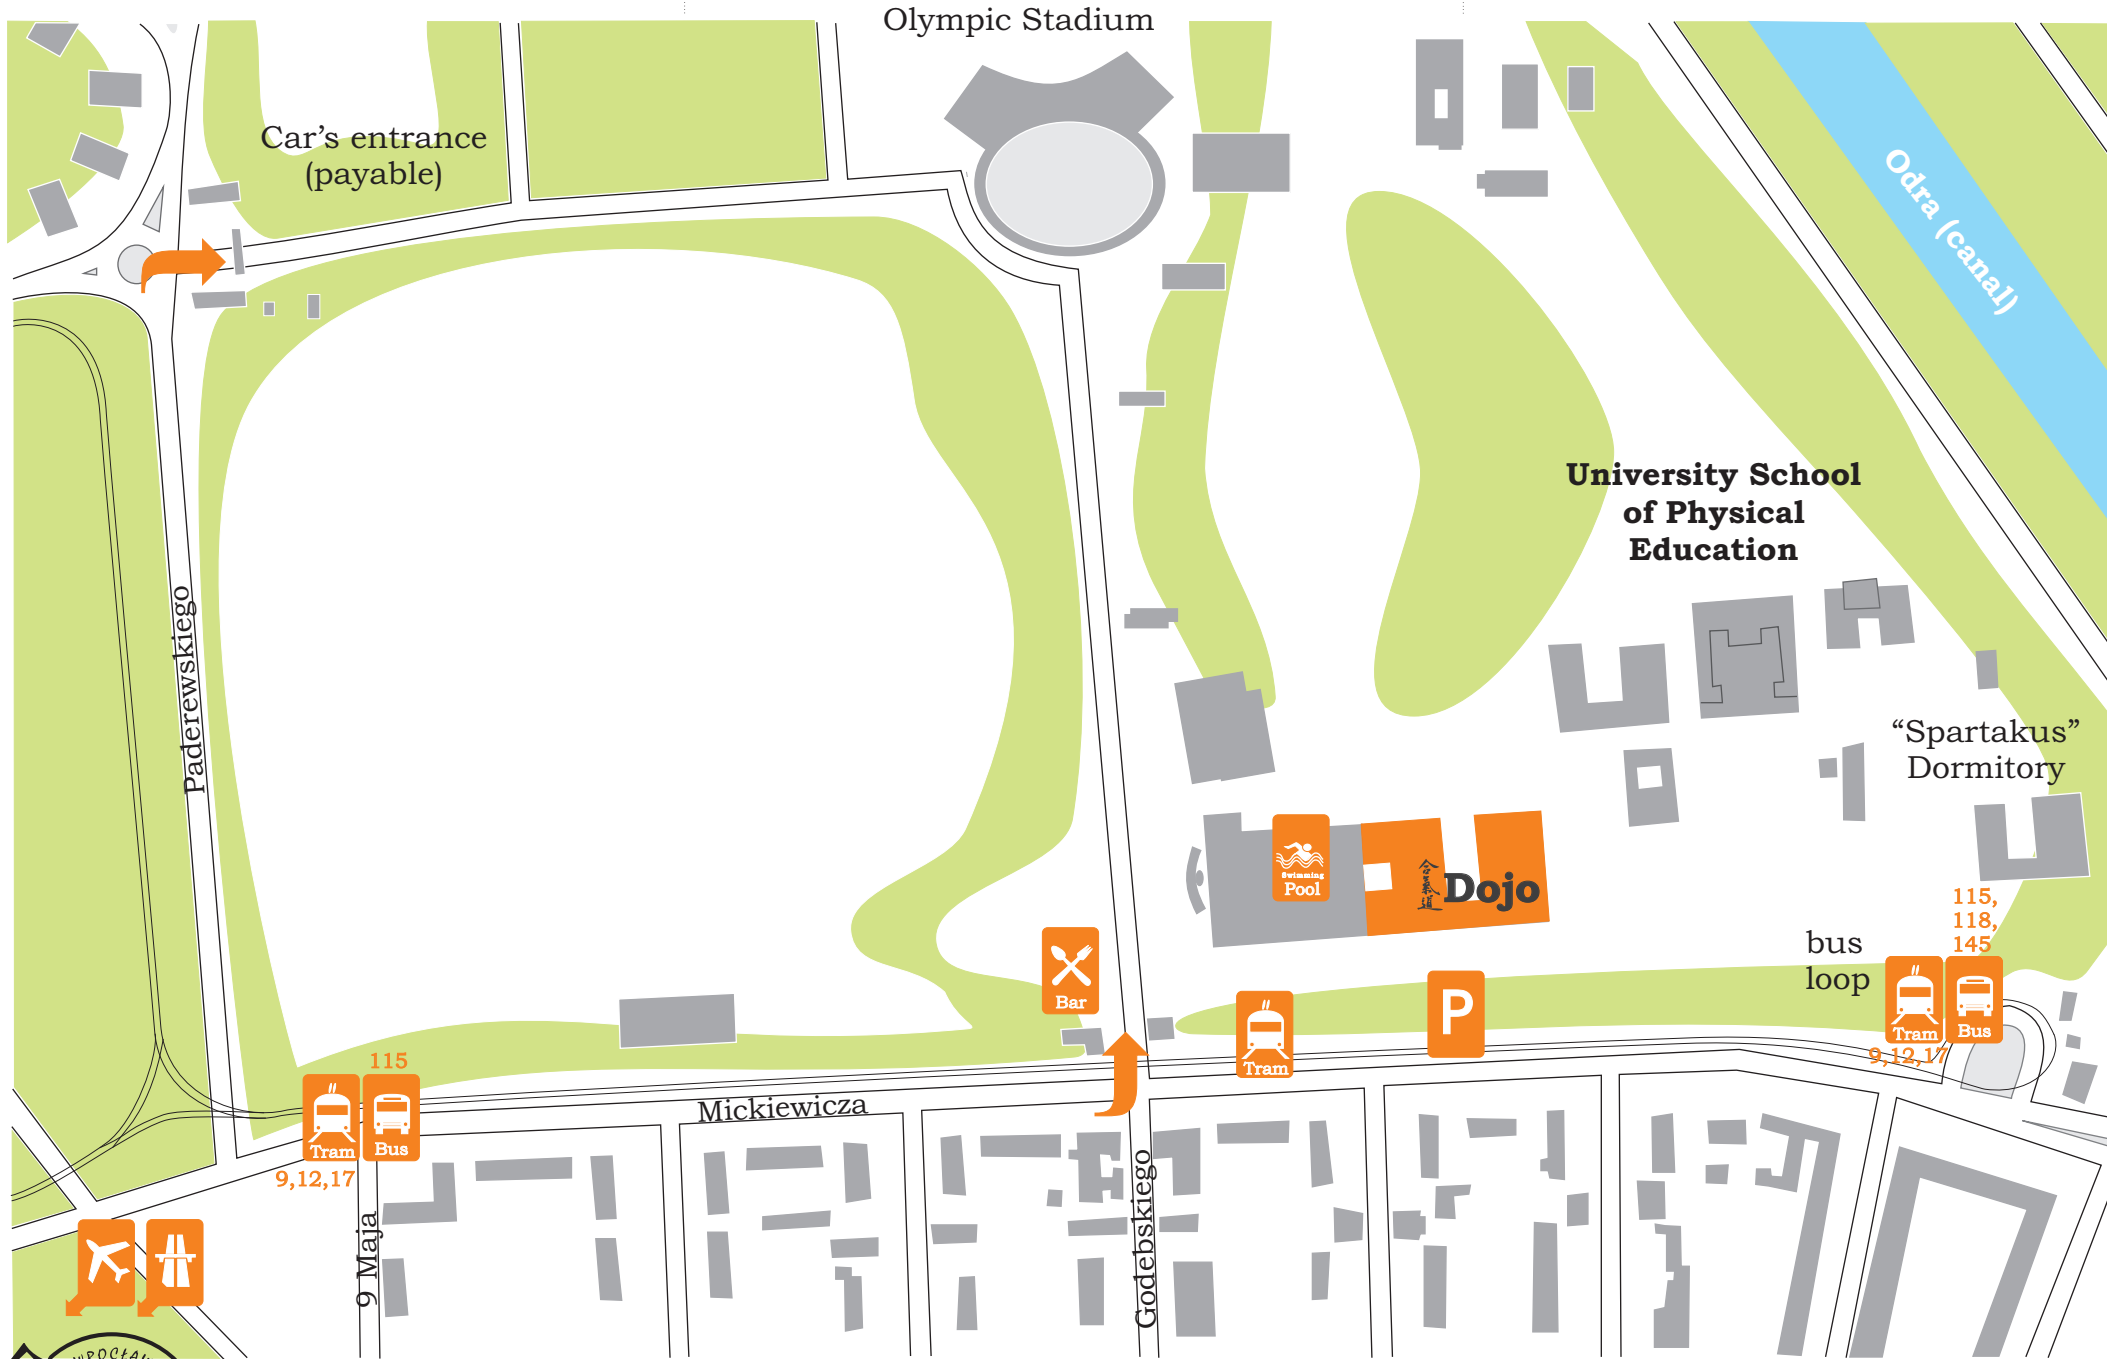

We welcome you cordially to the Aikido Summer School in Wrocław.
